You can also unsubscribe from our marketing by clicking on the unsubscribe link in any marketing messages we send to you.

7. TRANSFERRING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION INTERNATIONALLY

The personal information we collect is not transferred to, stored with or accessed by anybody other than the concerned authority or the management of Euro T20 Slam.

If you require more details on the arrangements for any of the above then please contact us using the details in the “Contact us” section below.

8. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR?

We will keep your personal information for as long as is necessary for the purpose for which it has been obtained and then for as long as there is any risk of a potential claim, which will be dependent upon the limitation period for the particular type of claim. We have set out below the main retention periods which will apply:

- For individual contacts at customers and suppliers this will be for as long as we continue to have a relationship with that customer or supplier and then for a period of 6 years afterwards.
- For marketing contacts it will generally be a period of 2 years after we were last in contact with you.
- For website users it will generally be a period of 6 years after you used our website.
- For individuals seeking information, making complaints or otherwise corresponding with us it will generally be 6 years.
- For individuals attending an event it will generally be a period of 6 years after the event.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you move position or work for a different organisation or change your phone number or email address. You can contact us by using the details set out in the “Contact us” section below.

9. SECURITY

We have numerous security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of information under our control, such as passwords and firewalls. We cannot, however, guarantee that these measures are, or will remain, adequate. We do, however, take data security very seriously and will use all reasonable endeavours to protect the integrity and security of the personal information we collect about you.

10. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the following rights in relation to your personal information:

- the right to be informed about how your personal information is being used;
- the right to access the personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the erasure of your personal information in certain limited circumstances;
- the right to restrict processing of your personal information where certain requirements are met;
- the right to object to the processing of your personal information;
- the right to request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or another service provider; and
- the right to object to certain automated decision making processes using your personal information.

You should note that some of these rights, for example the right to require us to transfer your data to another service provider or the right to object to automated decision making, may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which apply to them and they may not apply to personal information recorded and stored by us. For example, we do not use automated decision making in relation to your personal data. However, some have no conditions attached, so your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights. Whilst this privacy notice sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the website at www.et20s.com

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contact us" section below. If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can also complain to the info@et20s.com or your local data protection regulator. We are here to help and encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first.

11. CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.

12. CONTACT US

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please email us at info@et20s.com
